

Often, trans-activists have leveraged the social media corporations to silence perspectives they are otherwise unable to effectively respond to. Here is an example from October 2019.

This comment goes against our Community Standards on spam
CLOSED

ACTIVITY

About your comment
Monday, October 7, 2019 at 2:39 PM
No one else can see your comment.

And if terf is not a slur, why is it so often used in exhortations to physical and misogynist violence including the lynching of women who express gender critical views? Has our culture's immersion in pornography so deadened us to the reality of violence against women that we no longer recognize women as even mattering? <https://terfisaslur.com/>

Delete

This comment goes against our Community Standards on spam
CLOSED

ACTIVITY

About your comment
Monday, October 7, 2019 at 2:17 PM
No one else can see your comment.

You have no right to cis-gender me. I reject the very premise on which that assertion is founded.
<https://www.feministcurrent.com/2018/05/16/neither-cis-terf/>

Delete